

Ilseyar Khayrullova

Mezzosoprano

The young Mezzo is born in Tatarstan, Russia in 1987.

2006 graduated from Tatarstan Music college and continued her vocal studies at Rimsky-Korsakov Saint-Petersburg State Conservatoire graduating in 2012.

Ilseyar Khayrullova is prize winner of the International Competition «Playing Slonimsky», St.Petersburg 2012.

2010 she has started to participate and toured as soloist at the Saint-Petersburg State Conservatory and opera studio performing among others following parts:

Rimsky-Korsakov "Snegurochka"(Vesna)

Mozart "Le nozze di Figaro" (Cherubino)

Prokofiev "The Love for Three Oranges"(Klariche)

Tchaikovsky"Eugene Onegin" (Olga)

Tchaikovsky "Iolanta" (Marta)

She has studied as well the part of Azucena (Trovatore), Konchakovna (Prince Igor), Orfeo (Orfeo ed Euridice) Lubasha (The Tsar`s Bride) Pauline (Queen of Spades).

From 2013/2014 Ilseyar Khayrullova is soloist at the Vienna State Opera, performing the part of Tisbe, Elfe, Magd, Wowkle among others.